SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of One Hundred Twenty (120) Months on Count 1, to run concurrent with Count 2; One Hundred Twenty (120) Months on Count 2, to run concurrent with Count 1.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under his control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device.

Upon completion of the term of imprisonment, and release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant is to be turned over to a duly-authorized immigration official for appropriate removal proceedings from the United States, pursuant to 18:3583(d) in accordance with the Immigration and Nationality Act. The defendant shall not reenter the United States unless he applies and receives permission from the Secretary of Homeland Security to legally enter the United States.

If the defendant is deported the only condition of his supervised release is that he not be found in the United States illegally or violate another state, federal, or local law.

If the defendant is allowed to remain in or return to the United States legally he must notify and report to the nearest United States Probation Officer within 72 hours of his entry, and the standard conditions of Supervised Release will apply.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 14135a(d)(1) and 10 U.S.C. 1656(d), which requires mandatory DNA testing for federal offenders convicted of felony offenses.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, real or personal, residence, place of business of employment, and/or vehicle(s) at the request of the U.S. Probation Officer.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall register as a sex offender in the jurisdiction he resides pursuant to 18:4042(c).

The defendant shall participate in the mental health aftercare program including a psychosexual evaluation and counseling if deemed necessary and comply with the conditions of the sex offender contract under the guidance and supervision of the United States Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under his control any computers in his residence.
